

Developing Your Leadership Style Workshop

- Adapting the right style to the unique needs of the individual!

Developing Your Leadership Style Workshop provides the skills and strategies to enable leaders to adapt the right leadership approach based on the individual skills and capabilities. This workshop will help you assess your team's competency and apply the right coaching approach to help the individual develop their skills and autonomy. By the end of this program you will be able to:

- Assess individual competency and motivation
- Identify root cause of performance issues
- Build techniques to adapt your leadership style
- Coach your team to be more autonomous

Testimonials: "In my 13 years as a Leader, this was by far the best most impactful leadership development program I have ever experience." "In the classroom, I experienced Sam to be a natural facilitator with a good classroom presence, and he always appeared well-tuned into the needs of learners."

Length of Workshop: 8-16 hours (Length can be flexible)

Workshop Size: Minimum 8 - Maximum 30

Facilitator Bio: Sam Kanner has over 24 years of people development experience working in fortune 500 & 1000 corporations. He is Managing Director of globalEdge and serves on the Board of Directors for Performance eSource. Sam's experience includes Vice President of Global Learning & Development for Getty Images a global media company in which he served as the Executive Coach for the Senior Leadership team. Director of Organizational Development at Avanade and various leadership positions in the Retail & Restaurant Industry. Sam has coached over 250 (director thru C level) executives and has facilitated over 3000 hours of leadership classes. Sam specializes in Executive Coaching & Leadership Development and has a passion for helping individuals and teams develop life changing skills.

For more details contactus@globaledgeco.com or +1.425.298.4357