

coachingEdge

Accelerate your career

- Giving leaders an edge in today's global market place!

coachingEdge is a customized Executive Coaching approach to accelerate your leadership development and career growth. You will learn how to build upon your strengths and develop skills in alignment with your career aspirations. A typical coaching approach includes:

- Assess your skills against critical competencies
- Get feedback from others through our 360 assessment tool
- Develop a realistic development plan
- Intensive skill development
- Progress assessment

Testimonials:

- "The coaching conversations my Executive Coach and I had have been one of my best experiences here at X company in almost 7 years. Literally every time, I felt I learned something, got a better handle around dealing with "things".
- "My coach was the best executive coach that I ever worked with. He had excellent ideas, and a very effective style in sharing those ideas. There is no doubt that he added a great deal of value to my career."
- ".....excellent mentor and executive coach. He worked with me to grow my leadership and team management skills, at an accelerated pace. His experience and development approach suited me well and I would highly recommend him as an Executive coach."

Length of Program: 6-12 months (Length can be flexible)

Executive Coach Bio: Sam Kanner has over 24 years of people development experience working in fortune 500 & 1000 corporations. He is currently Managing Director, Executive Coach of globalEdge and serves on the Board of Directors for Performance eSource. Sam's experience includes Vice President of Learning & Development for Getty Images a global media company in which he served as the Executive Coach for the Senior Leadership team; Director of Organizational Development at Avanade; and various leadership positions in the Retail & Restaurant Industry. Sam has coached over 250 leaders director through C level and has facilitated over 3000 hours of leadership development classes. Sam specializes in Executive Coaching & Leadership Development and has a passion for helping individuals and teams develop life changing skills.

For details contactus@globaledgeco.com or +1.425.298.6357

globalEdge

Executive Coaching, Leadership Development, and Talent Management for today's global leaders