

Leading Global Teams

- Leading an effective team from a far.

Do you manage a virtual or globally dispersed team? Our Leading Global Teams Workshop provides the skills and strategies to help leaders lead an effective team from a far. By the end of this program you will be able to:

- Understand common barriers to leading a team from a far
- Explore best practices for working with people from different cultures and time zones
- Build your global team management skills
- Develop a strategy to lead differently.

Length of Workshop: 8 hours (Length can be flexible)

Workshop Size: Minimum 8 - Maximum 30

Facilitator Bio: Sam Kanner has over 24 years of people development experience working in fortune 500 & 1000 corporations. He is Managing Director of globalEdge and serves on the Board of Directors for Performance eSource. Sam's experience includes Vice President of Global Learning & Development for Getty Images a global media company in which he served as the Executive Coach for the Senior Leadership team. Director of Organizational Development at Avanade and various leadership positions in the Retail & Restaurant Industry. Sam has coached over 250 (director thru C level) executives and has facilitated over 3000 hours of leadership classes. Sam specializes in Executive Coaching & Leadership Development and has a passion for helping individuals and teams develop life changing skills.

For more details contactus@globaledgeco.com or +1.425.298.4357